

Darrell and Amy Cooley are Program Directors. Darrell grew up in Carrollton, GA while Amy grew up in Sparta, TN. They both have experience playing sports at the college level. Darrell comes with a wealth of knowledge as he has coaching experience at the college level as well. He was an assistant coach at Martin Methodist under Chuck Benson who is now the head coach at Carson Newman. While at Martin they won the NAIA Conference. He has coached AAU teams out of Tennessee and Georgia and has also volunteered and dedicated several years as a recreational coach in Villa Rica, GA with one of his AllStar teams winning the State tournament.

The goal of Georgia Travelers is to provide an avenue for young men to develop their game to the next level and grow into men of character and integrity.

Self Discipline – Poise – Preparation - Teamwork
